

	Certain works were agreed as urgent and included smartening of the front facia.
11.	Cambs County Council: In County Cllr Kindersley's absence District Cllr Van de Weyer reported that the £1 parking charge at park and ride sites is to cease. Also that the subsidy/support for Community Car Schemes will continue for this coming year but future is uncertain. Clerk reported that Winter Maintenance Packs and information has been sent to current volunteers. Volunteers are needed for Glebe Road (field end), Malthouse Way junction with Glebe Road, Boot Lane and Primes Close. Clerk is also attaching notices to bins to the effect that the salt mixture is not for private use, but may be used by villagers for pavements where considered unsafe. Cllrs Day and Gardiner discussed fallen tree on/near footpaths off Back Lane. General Data Protection Regulations comes into force on 25th May. Clerk has already attended a webinar in September. Since then NALC are recommending that Clerk should not be the Data Protection Officer. Previous Chairman had agreed Clerk attend further training session. Clerk reported that cost of outsourcing this role to CAPALC or the LGAS looks to be around £300 per annum. BPC is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office. These regulations also affect the Green Charity.	VT ALL/ VT
12.	Planning items:- 12.1.1 S/4453/17/FL New single storey dwelling and garage, 30 Shepreth Road. Mr and Mrs Galpin had updated the Council on actions taken to address S.C.D.C. objections. On proposition of Cllr Gardiner it was agreed to support. 12.1.2 S/4382/17/PA Change of use of agricultural building to dwelling etc. Field Barn, Glebe Road. District Cllr Van de Weyer had checked on differences between this application and the previous one which had been approved. There is no plan on the web site and the only difference he could see was on the number of windows. Council agreed to maintain previous comment that a condition needs including to cover a traffic management scheme which would ensure that the footpath was useable, and not obstructed for the duration of building works. 12.1.3 Land rear of Greenwood, Back Lane : At Cllr Day's request District Cllr Van de Weyer to ascertain why the delegation report does not have a condition regarding the bridleway. 12.1.4 9 Back Lane : At Cllr Days' request District Cllr Van de Weyer to ascertain why delegation report is not on website. Also current position regarding the water disposal report from Simon Bunn. Clerk also has not received a response from Head of Planning.	VT VT AVdW AVdW
13.	South Cambs District Council: 13.1 Local Plan- now in six week consultation period. When report comes back from Inspector in April S.C.D.C. can then use the criteria. 13.2 Greater Cambridge Partnership – is discussing rural travel hubs with Sawston, Whittlesford, Oakington and Foxton heading the trials. Cllr Potter reiterated how Barrington residents cannot get to Melbourn on public transport and thus the car scheme is well used for health visits.
